POPULAR VOTING CONTEST.

IS TO BE STARTED SOON
BY WEEKLY GAZETTE-NEWS.

SOME YOUNG LADIES IN DAY-TONA TO BE GIVEN PIANO, GOLD WATCH AND VARIOUS OTHER PRIZES.

Arrangements have just been made by the Daytona Weekly Gazette-News for a popular voting contest,
which will be started in a few days,
by which some young woman in Daytona will be presented with a high-priced piano, while another will be given a gold watch and still others will receive other prizes of value.

The voting contest will be conducted in connection with subscriptions paid to the Gazette-News and the prizes will be given absolutely free to the young woman receiving the largest number of popularity votes.

In connection with this voting contest a mysterious stranger will spend considerable time in the city, visiting the various hotels and business places and a prize of $10 in gold will be given to the young woman who discovers his identity at the proper time.

This voting contest will be made interesting from the start to the finish. It has been arranged with considerable expense to the publisher of the Gazette-News, but the people of Daytona have been loyal to the paper and the publisher is using this means of furnishing some excitement and entertainment during the winter months.

Full particulars of the voting contest will be announced in the Gazette-News. Watch for the announcement.

SENATOR ELKINS IS DEAD; END COMES AT MIDNIGHT.

FUNERAL SERVICES IN WASH-INGTON TOMORROW AND BODY
WILL BE TAKEN TO ELKINS
FOR BURIAL.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 5—Senator
Stephen B. Elkins of West Virginia, died at his home here at midnight of blood poisoning, after an illness of several months. He was taken ill at his home in West Virginia early last summer and was removed to Washington in a private car this winter.

The funeral services will be held at his residence here tomorrow afternoon and the body will be taken to his home at Elkins, W. Va., where interment will be made Saturday.

MINING TOWN BURNS; PITTSBURG WIPED OUT
LONDON, Ky., Jan. 5—The mining town of Pittsburg was wiped out by a fire this morning. The loss amounts to $40,000.

STILL PUSH SOFT WATER PROPOSITION.

VISITED JACKSONVILLE TO INVESTIGATE WATER SOFTENING.

MEMBERS OF CITIZENS COMMIT-TEE AND SUPERINTENDENT OF WATERWORKS SPEND WEDNES-DAY IN METROPOLIS.

At the suggestion of members of the Board of Public Works and the city council, and other interested parties, Major A. B. Foster and T. A.
Snider, of the citizens committee, and Geo. A. Main, superintendent of the city water works, went to Jacksonville Wednesday to look over the water softening plants in that city and South Jacksonville and get all the information possible bearing upon the water softening question that might be of assistance in establishing a softening plant at the city water works of this place.

They first visited the plant of the E. O. Painter Fertilizer Co., at South Jacksonville and later several others in Jacksonville, including that of the Jacksonville Street Railway company, where the softening process is carried on upon a very large scale.

After making the rounds of the various plants they concluded that one similar to that used by the Painter company would be best suited to the conditions here and both Major Foster and Mr. Snider are satisfied that a plant with sufficient capacity to fulfill the needs of this city for years to come can be installed for the sum of $2,500.

They saw both the continuous and intermittent methods in use and think the latter would be best adapted for a plant here, but preferred the compressed air method of agitation, as used in the Painter plant, over the wing or paddle method used in the larger plant of the street railway company.

They sampled the softened water and found it palatable for drinking purposes and as soft and pleasant as rain water for toilet purposes, used without soap. It was also clear and sparkling.

After a strenuous day among the various softening plants the party returned to Daytona by the night train, more than ever satisfied that a softening plant should be established at the waterworks of this city and that the cost will not exceed the amount stated, $2,500.

WARMER WEATHER COMING; LESS COLD FOR TOMORROW.

PREDICTION IS FOR ANOTHER
FREEZE TONIGHT WITH WARM-ER WEATHER TO FOLLOW TO-MORROW.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 5—Rising temperature is predicted for the southeast tonight, except in South Georgia and Florida, where there will be another freeze as far south as central Florida.

Tomorrow the weather will not be so cold.

WILL ARRIVE IN TIME TO CONDUCT SERVICES SUNDAY.

Rev. Dr. B. F. Marsh, pastor of the Congregational church of this city, received a letter Wednesday afternoon from Rev. E. J. Ranslow, of Swanton, Vt., who was then in New York, stating he was on his way to Daytona and expected to be here to preach his first sermon in the Congregational church, of Seabreeze, Sunday. Mr. Ranslow is to be the regular pastor in charge of the Seabreeze Congregational church, the pulpit of which has heretofore been filled by Dr. Marsh.

WESTERN GANG OF THIEVES
MAKE WAY WITH $100,000 WORTH OF JEWELRY AND GEMS WITHIN FORTNIGHT.

NEW YORK, Jan. 5—The entire police force of New York City and all the private detectives are today trailing a gang of clever and daring western jewelry thieves, which has stolen $100,000 worth of jewelry and gems in this city within the past two weeks.

Clues were discovered today which show the loot has been shipped into western Canada and Europe to be disposed of. The names of the victims of the robberies are being closely guarded.

Mrs. G. S. Blount departed Tuesday morning for Washington, D. C., where she will spend a week or ten days and then go to Cincinnati, O., for a couple of weeks visit with Mr.
and Mrs. J. J. Baird, who will come to Daytona with her about the middle of February.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Beebe, of Detroit, Mich., are in the city for a few days on their wedding trip. Mr. and Mrs. Beebe came down from St. Augustine, where they spent a few days and after a short stay in Daytona will go to Los Angeles, Cal., to spend the remainder of the winter.

OPPOSES ELECTION OF LODGE.

MASSACHUSETTS GOVERNOR
WILL FIGHT HIS RE-ELECTION.

BAY STATE EXECUTIVE FAVORS REMOVAL OF DUTIES ON FOOD PRODUCTS AND POPULAR ELECTION OF SENATORS.

BOSTON, Mass., Jan. 5—Return to popular rule constitutes the basis of recommendations made by Governor Foss to the state legislature in his message to that body today.

The governor recommends that the duties be removed from food products to lower the present high cost of living, direct primaries, the power of recall, election of United States senators by direct vote of the people, the income tax amendment, abolishment of lobbyist's and strikes a blow against the re-election of Senator Henry Cabot Lodge.

THREE PERSONS ARE KILLED WHILE OUT FOR A JOY RIDE.

SAN DIEGO, Cal., Jan. 5—L. F.
Oakes and T. A. McMicken were killed and Miss Ivy Goss was fatally injured while joy riding in an automobile late last night. The machine turned over while driven at a fast speed around a curve. The victims are all employees of E. W. Scripps, the millionaire newspaper man.

BOAT SWAN IS ENROUTE TO SOUTH.

WILL BE READY FOR TRIPS
WHICH START JANUARY 15.

FIRST OF NEW LINE OF STEAM-ERS FOR INLAND WATERWAY
IS NOW ENROUTE TO ST. AU-GUSTINE.

The steamer Swan, which leaves St. Augustine, January 15th for the first trip down the inland water course between St. Augustine and Palm Beach, is expected to arrive in Jacksonville in a few days, and from that city will be sent on to St. Augustine.

The Swan will be fitted up in St.
Augustine for the first trip down the East Coast, and after the middle of the month will make regular trips between the Ancient City and Palm Beach.

The Swan was built in Jacksonville by the Merrill-Stevens company and was launched August 7, 1904, being christened by Miss Daisy Brown of Savannah. The steamer is 156 feet long over all and with 34 foot beam.
It draws 16 inches of water and in addition to ample freight accommodations has two upper decks for passengers, the cabins being nicely fitted up.

The steamer Swan sailed Monday
from Savannah and when it sailed it carried rather an unique cargo, the same being a small wagon circus, on its way to Florida. This is Selby's circus, which has been touring the lower parts of South Carolina. The menagerie of the circus consists of a lion, several monkeys and a number of ponies. Twenty persons make up the personnel of the show, which,
with a number of horses and wagons,
comprise the outfit.

The importance of the new line of freight and passenger steamers to Daytona and all other towns along the East Coast is shown by the fact that the first announcement of the new enterprise was made in the Daytona Daily News and has been accepted and published by all newspapers up and down the East Coast.

Capt. J. H. Howard, of the Gulf Coast Navigation company, which is back of the proposed line of steamers, is meeting with encouragement all along the coast and has received many assurances that the new line of steamers will receive the support of the business people in all the towns that can be reached along the inland waterway.

The steamer Swan will be kept in commission until the increase in business demands additional facilities, when another will be added and still more will be put into commission if the business is heavy enough.

BLIZZARD IN NEW YORK; SNOW PILED IN DRIFTS.

WITH WORST STORM OF WINTER
RAGING AND ZERO TEMPERA-TURE ALL TRAFFIC IS PARAL-YZED.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., Jan. 5—The worst blizzard of the winter is raging in northern New York today.

In many places the snow has been piled into mountainous drifts by the strong wind and traffic is practically paralyzed.

STOCKS AGAIN STRONG;
ADVANCES FRACTIONAL.

NEW YORK, Jan. 5—Stocks today ruled strong and active. Reading, St. Paul and New York Central led with fractional advances. Steel was strong.

Miss Ella Willaume was a Jacksonville visitor Wednesday returning by the evening train.

WILL PLACE TELEPHONE IN STATION.

CONVENIENCE IS SECURED
THROUGH THE HOTEL MEN.

OPERATOR TO BE PLACED AT DEPOT TO DISPENSE RELIABLE
INFORMATION TO ALL SUB-SCRIBERS.

A telephone is soon to be placed in the ticket office of the Florida East Coast railroad here and local people will then be able to secure reliable information concerning trains, etc.

This is the result of organization among the hotel men of this city and the work of a committee appointed for this purpose. The convenience will not be limited simply to the telephone in the station but an operator paid by the Hotel Men's Association, will be on duty to attend to all calls and dispense information to all who may ask.

A telephone in the passenger station, by means of which people could gain information as to the time of trains, etc., is a convenience that has been sought by the citizens for some time, but with little satisfaction until the matter was taken in hand by the hotel men as an organization.

This result of the work by the committee was reported at the regular meeting of the Hotel Men's Association of Daytona held at the Ridgewood Hotel Wednesday evening and A. O. Holroyd, E. Lane and J.
H. Frosen were appointed as a committee to complete the arrangements for having the telephone installed in the ticket office.

The operator who will attend to the telephone at the station will be paid by the association, but several business men have expressed a desire to be allowed to pay a part of this expense because of the convenience to them. These voluntary donations will be accepted by the committee and the balance will be paid by the association. Any persons desiring to be allowed to contribute toward the wages of a telephone operator at the depot should notify some member of the above committee.

Nothing definite was done at the meeting about a rearrangement of the bus stands at the depot, but the committee reported progress to the extent of having visited the local agent, by whom it was informed that instructions had been given that all hotels should retain their old stands, regardless of whether the busses
were horse or motor busses.

The question of a board of trade, or commercial organization for the city of Daytona was discussed at some length and the unanimous sentiment expressed by the hotel men was that the city should have such an organization.

The next meeting of the Hotel Men's Association will be held the evening of January 16 at the Palmetto House.

Volusia County is situated 23 miles southwest of Daytona and is reached from the latter city by an excellent hard-surface road recently constructed.

At Deland is located the John H. Stetson University, one of the leading educational institutions of the South. Because of the interest in matters educational Deland is known as "The Athens of Florida."

Stetson University has a faculty of 50 professors and instructors. There are over $400,000 in buildings and equipment; nearly $300,000 endowment; a Carnegie Library alone representing an investment in building, endowment and books, of more than $120,000. The library is the United States Government depository for the State of Florida, and contains over 15,000 volumes. Science Hall, one of the newest of 16 buildings, with its furnishings, represents an outlay of $200,000. Elizabeth Hall is one of the most beautiful college buildings in the South.

The city has a population of about 3,500, with a thickly settled country adjacent. Deland proper is five miles east of the St. Johns River, on the high, rolling pine land of the great "Orange Ridge" of Florida.

The predominant products are oranges and grapefruit, the estimated crop from this vicinity being over 300,000 boxes this year. Grapes, peaches, pears, Japan persimmons, plums, pecans, guavas, strawberries and other fruits are grown in plenty. In the way of public improvements are many miles of fine shell roads, an excellent high school, electric lights, a system of waterworks that is owned and operated by the city, supplying the purest water at little cost.

Nine houses of worship testify that Deland is a church-going community. Baptists, Episcopalians, Methodists (Northern and Southern), Presbyterians, Christians and Catholics, besides colored Baptists and Methodists, are represented.

The graded school offers a ten years' course, and the building which it occupies is newly furnished throughout, and is one of the most commodious and best equipped public schools in the State.

The trip from Daytona to Deland is made by automobile in a little over an hour, and there are many pretty drives in the vicinity of the county site. A good road leads to DeLeon Springs, five miles, a historic spot, where 60,000 gallons of water bubble from the earth every minute. From Deland automobiles go south to Osteen, 18 miles, on shell and marl roads; the St. Johns is crossed by ferry near Osteen and cars can then continue to Sanford and Orlando by hard road. There is a shell road from Deland to Orange City, five miles, and a good road from Deland to Lake Helen, a like distance.

LAKE HELEN
Surrounded by several pretty lakes and guarded by lofty pine trees is Lake Helen, a winter resort of no little importance. Camp Cassadaga, a spiritualistic camp-ground is situated near Lake Helen and at this place several hundred people make winter headquarters. A large lumber mill and the largest brick plant in the South are located at Lake Helen.

ORANGE CITY
The principal attraction around Orange City is the many handsome golden orange groves. The town is supplied with water said to be the purest in the world, another attraction to visitors. It is at Orange City that passengers over the Florida East Coast Ry. transfer to carriages and drive to Deland. The town is surrounded by land peculiarly adapted to the cultivation of citrus fruits.

fact must be apparent to the most superficial observer. With such lavish wealth of natural beauty it became an easy thing for the hand of man to give the finishing touches which have wrought out the colors and outlines of the big picture.

Man did all this in the laying out of the streets with their wide margins of parkage. The entire city becomes a great park, with driveways intersecting, miles upon miles of driveways so good as to attract motorists from all over the continent.

And as for the pavements, pavements that look and act like granite—where else between the eastern and western seas are so many miles in proportion to inhabitants? The pavement question stands with the street as one of the chief drawing cards. Till some unheard of place reports more and better, Daytona chews down the gauntlet to the world.

Squirrels, Flowers, Birds and Fruit. Whatever one's shortcomings and however indifferent or even callous one may be to many things, the mere mention of "flowers and squirrels, birds and fruits" will send a thrill that is reflected in distended pupils and pricked ears.

For every visitor with a spare goober there is a bunny ready to come and accept your gift. He will sit bolt upright and know into the meat, casting furtive, saucy glances at you meanwhile.

Flowers. Usually fresh and blooming the year 'round, you are reminded of Goldsmith's couplet where Smiling spring its earliest visit paid And summer's lingering blossoms are delayed.

In one yard roses of variegated hues predominate; another household has a penchant for the poinsettia and the premises are aflame; another is hidden in a jungle of tall cane. Variety is the spice of life and here is where you find it.

The birds flit in, and with their joyous notes help to give fullness and symmetry to the picture.

As for fruits, choice citrus fruits, Daytona yields the palm to none for quality and quantity per acre. There are scores of citrus groves in proximity to the city, branches bending to the earth with their burdens of luscious golden globes, which for beauty, proficacy and all desirable qualities would truly astonish you. The Fastest Autos and The Finest Out.

The seventh world wonder, do you ask? Come, whether from Missouri or from Maine, from Kalamazoo or Timbucto, and you will be "shown." Here is where the world's record for speed is broken with every recurring season. Autos, the biggest, the fastest, and the finest are on daily parade and the big show is as free as the pure artesian water from the thousands of flowing wells. It is a continuous show with a constantly shifting scene.

Everything goes, from a 2-horse power up to a 200-horse power, and all degrees of speed from a canter to a two-mile-a-minute clip. You will probably catch the spirit, when you do the roads and the beach are yours. The Florida sunshine is free, the balmy ocean breezes are free, the birds and squirrels and flowers are free, the sparkling fountain water is free and you will have to go down into your wallet only for coin for auto, and bed and board.

This is no fanciful picture; it's all here. It is drawing other thousands and holding them enthralled, it will charm and hold you. Come and see.

By L. C. DEMAREE.
One of Daytona's crowning glories is her incomparable beach. No one who has ever set foot upon its smooth, packed sands; no one who ever pedaled a bicycle over its expanse; no one who ever drove a prancing pair of horses and listened to the popping of their steel shoes upon its asphaltum-like face; no one who ever steered a high-power automobile down the broad stretch of wave-washed and surf-packed sand but realized that it is a world beater, a world wonder. Go stand upon this wide speedway and see the happy souls flit by in joyous mood, and answer whether this is not one of the seven modern wonders.

The Placid, Pellucid Halifax River. Where think you is water with more picturesque surroundings? Nearly a mile wide, fringed with tropical vegetation, artistic cottages with roomy verandas looking out upon her bosom gamey food fishes in countless numbers beckoning, as it were, to those with rod and reel; her bosom flecked with duck and coot and snowy-winged sea birds, which sit about as if for the sport of bobbing upon the waves; watch that lubberly old white headed pelican pouch a fat mullet, and that fish hawk struggling upward with his floundering load he snatched from the water.

See the beautiful launches, spick and span, with hampers and lockers bulging with refreshments, both solid and liquid, ready for a cruise upon the beautiful surface. Take out your field glass and sweep the river from Ormond bridge to Ponce Park light house, then say whether the Halifax isn't a thing of beauty and a joy forever, and one of the modern wonders.

The Enchantingly Picturesque Ridge-wood.

Ridgewood avenue is upon the crest of a broad ridge, straight as the crow flies and the wide spreading branches of the heavy-trunked live oaks extend their giant arms across the magnificent vista, forming an arch, and from these extended arms great festoons of Spanish moss sway as the trade winds from the tropic seas fan them. Looking straight ahead down this white shell street one has the impression of a fairy path with Persian draperies, but as you move along and cast an eye first to the right and then to the left you see distinguished cottage homes in the most delightful settings.

See the glistening leaf of the grand magnolia which nature has varnished as no artist's brush ever could; and the cabbage palms with their burdens of showy fruit and swaying palms; see the lovely holly with its exquisite berry; see the climbing vines run riot in the trees; see the cryptocarpus forms which gain a foothold on the great oaks and stately palms, and surely you will join in the chorus and say that this is a world wonder for beauty.

Surpassing Beauty of Our Cottage Homes.

No one of Daytona's attractions, perhaps, commands more nearly universal attention and praise than does the artistic cottages. The owners of these charming villas hail from every corner of the country and they bring their own architectural plans and build upon them, and, as the architecture of one section of the country differs from the architecture of another so do our homes differ in outward appearance and structural beauty from one another. There are no monotonous rows of strikingly similar buildings but the eye, as it sweeps by, is treated to a kaleidoscopic change which keeps the mind wondering, "What next?"

It is not only the exterior of many of these homes which rivets attention; when they are models of convenience, and the finishing and furnishing give evidence of the elegance and cultivation of those who worked it all out. Indeed, it is the interior arrangement and artistic furnishing and shading, more than the exterior appearance that gives a surpassing charm to Daytona homes. This feature justly merits prominence as another wonder.

Streets and Pavements the Most and Best.

Why the Architect of the Universe chose to give Daytona the most admirable, the most picturesque natural setting of all the cities of the South is not revealed, but that such is a

Seabreeze News

SEABREEZE, Jan. 5.—Mr. and Mrs. Robert S. Holmes are occupying their new winter home on Valley street. It is a cosy, homelike, modern residence and makes a decided improvement in its locality. Broad cement walks have been laid, which afford an automobile driveway from the new garage. Mr. Holmes has purchased a new Ford automobile since his arrival, and is looking forward to many motoring trips through the highways of Florida this season.

Mrs. J. A. Coburn and daughter, Miss Leota, will arrive home Sunday from their holiday visit with Mr. Coburn at Savannah and other points.

Mr. and Mrs. Loon Gillett arrived Monday from Carbondale, Pa., on a two-months' visit with his parents. Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Gillett, on Halifax avenue. Mr. Gillett contracted a severe cold on his trip south and is under the doctor's care.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter J. Gamble arrived Tuesday, several days later than anticipated, having stopped over at Jacksonville and St. Augustine for a few days. They made the trip from St. Augustine in their car, and are receiving the usual warm welcome by their many friends at their winter home on Halifax avenue.

J. W. Erreger has sold his property, usually known as the Morse home, on Peninsula drive, Daytona Beach, to Judge Nathaniel C. Sears of Chicago. The deal was transacted through C. A. Kenney, real estate agent, and was closed the last day of 1910. Judge Sears is contracting for numerous improvements in the property, which will include several thousand dollars, and make the property one of the most valuable as well as one of the handsomest in this vicinity. As soon as details of changes are concluded Judge Sears will return to Chicago to come again later in the season.

Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Ayres will arrive from Detroit, Mich., this week on a visit to their daughter, Mrs. R. C. Holmes. They will have rooms at the Kenny home on Valley street. Messrs. Young and Young are building a boathouse at the city dock, to take care of their boats.

Mrs. H. T. Phillips, daughter and little granddaughter, Miss Nellie and Elizabeth, of Atlanta, came up from Miami a few days ago. They are regular winter visitors.

Mrs. Ruby Neal Thompson of Orlando is visiting Miss S. E. Russell. Next week the Sewing Circle will meet with Mrs. Wesley Herrick on Pinewood avenue. It has been decided to hold the annual bazaar on Washington's birthday.

The library is again open for use. The books have been recatalogued and names of members entered on the register. The library has recently been presented with two registers, one for book catalogue and the other for names of members, and starts off with the New Year most auspiciously.

C. E. Weitzel, who has been visiting his parents on Halifax avenue, left Saturday on his return to Pittsburgh.

Miss Helen Burgman entertained at her home on Ocean boulevard with a watch party the last night of the old year. Old fashioned games were enjoyed, and a "Deestrick" school taught, and a merry time generally spent. Dainty refreshments were served during the evening.

Prof. H. E. Wakefield and family, who have had their holiday at Bonaventure, are expected home Saturday afternoon.

W. A. Baggett is doing a good job of painting on W. T. Butler's two Ocean Boulevard cottages. Nothing helps more to give a town an air of prosperity than a judicious application of fresh paint.

Miss Marion Hatch and grandfather, R. A. Burget, will arrive this week from Cheshire, Mass. Miss Hatch is a charming girl and made many friends among the young society set during the several seasons she has spent in Seabreeze.

Our First Cocoa.
The first newspaper notice that announced the sale of cocoa and chocolate in America read:

"Amos Trask, at his house, a little below the Bell tavern, in Danvers, makes and sells chocolate which he will warrant to be good and takes cocoa to grind. Those who may please to favor him with their custom may depend upon being well served and at a very cheap rate."

This notice appeared in the Essex Gazette of Massachusetts on the 18th of June, 1771, five years before the signing of the Declaration of Independence. Despite Mr. Trask's assurance that his rate was cheap, chocolate was very expensive and beyond the purse of any but the wealthy folk.

Deep Sea.
It is a remarkable fact that the deepest parts of the sea are in all cases very near the land.

BATTLE WITH A BOG.

Redmiro's Suction Tore the Leather Gaiters Off a Man's Legs.

Readers of "Lorne Doane" can never forget the terrible drowning of Carter in the bog. That death trap is still to be seen in the Exmoor country, and not long ago a valuable hunting horse was engulfed in the mire, and his rider barely escaped with his life. S. Baring-Gould, who had a narrow escape from a similar bog, tells of it in his "Book of the West." The author was with an official from the Ordnance survey, who was correcting the map of the country:

"In the dusk we lost our way and got into Redmiro. It was winter, the bog was unusually wet, and we could scarcely trip from one stone to another. Six bullocks had been lost in that very spot during the year.

"All at once I sank above my waist and was rapidly being sucked in farther. I called to my companion, but in the darkness he could not see me. The water reached to my armpits. Happily I had with me a stout bamboo six feet long. I placed it athwart the surface and held my arms as far extended as possible. By quickly jerking my body I gradually lifted it, and then I threw myself forward as far as I could. Finally I managed to cast myself full length on the surface. The suction was so great that it tore the leather gaiters off my legs.

"For a quarter of an hour I lay stretched out gasping, before I got breath enough to worm myself along to dry soil."

In the Barber Shop.
Customer—What do you mean by that sign, "Shaving Pessimists, 25 cents?" Barber—That's because it takes more time to shave a man with a long face.—Judge.

Distance.
"Father, is it very far across the ocean?"
"Yes; it's a long way."
"About how many blocks?"—Brownie's Magazine.

Steel and Iron.
Reaumur discovered the direct process of making steel in 1722, or thereabouts, by immersing malleable iron in a bath of cast iron. A steel manufactory is said to have been set up by Benjamin Huntsman near Sheffield in 1740. It was about 1800, however, before steel fairly became the fashion. The greatest boost to the trade came from Bessemer in 1850.

Maids of Moods.
"Do your daughters help their mother with the housework?"
"We wouldn't think of expecting it. Muriel is temperamental, and Zaza is intense."—Pittsburg Post.

He that lives upon hopes will die fasting.—Franklin.

Mexico a Country Filled With Small Eating Booths For Unemployment

Booths in America From Unemployment

In the country where the nation's unemployment is so high, the small eating booths are a common sight. These booths are set up by people who are unemployed and are used to sell food and drink to the public. The booths are usually made of cardboard or other cheap materials and are very simple in design. They are often found on the corners of streets or in busy areas of the city.

These booths are a source of income for the unemployed people who run them. They are also a source of food and drink for the public. The booths are a very important part of the economy in Mexico.

GOETHE ON HAMLET.

The Great German Poet's Analysis of "The Melancholy Dane."

Figure to yourself this youth, this son of princes; conceive him vividly, bring his state before your eyes and then observe him when he learns that his father's spirit walks. Stand before him in the terror of the night when the venerable spirit appears over him. A horrid shudder passes over him; he speaks to the mysterious form; he sees it beckon to him; he follows it and hears. The fearful accusation of his uncle rings in his ears, the summons to revenge and the piercing oft repeated prayer, "Remember me!"

And when the ghost has vanished who is it that stands before us? A young hero, panting for vengeance? No! Trouble and astonishment take hold of the solitary young man. He grows bitter against smiling villains, swears that he will not forget the spirit and concludes with the significant ejaculation:

The time is out of joint. O cursed spite, That ever I was born to set it right!

In these words, I imagine, will be found the key to Hamlet's whole procedure. To me it is clear that Shakespeare meant in the present case to represent the effects of a great action laid upon the soul unfit for the performance of it. In this view the whole piece seems to be composed. There is an oak tree planted in a costly jar which should have borne only pleasant flowers in its bosom; the roots expand, the jar is shattered. — From "Wilhelm Meister."

SACKING A THEATER.

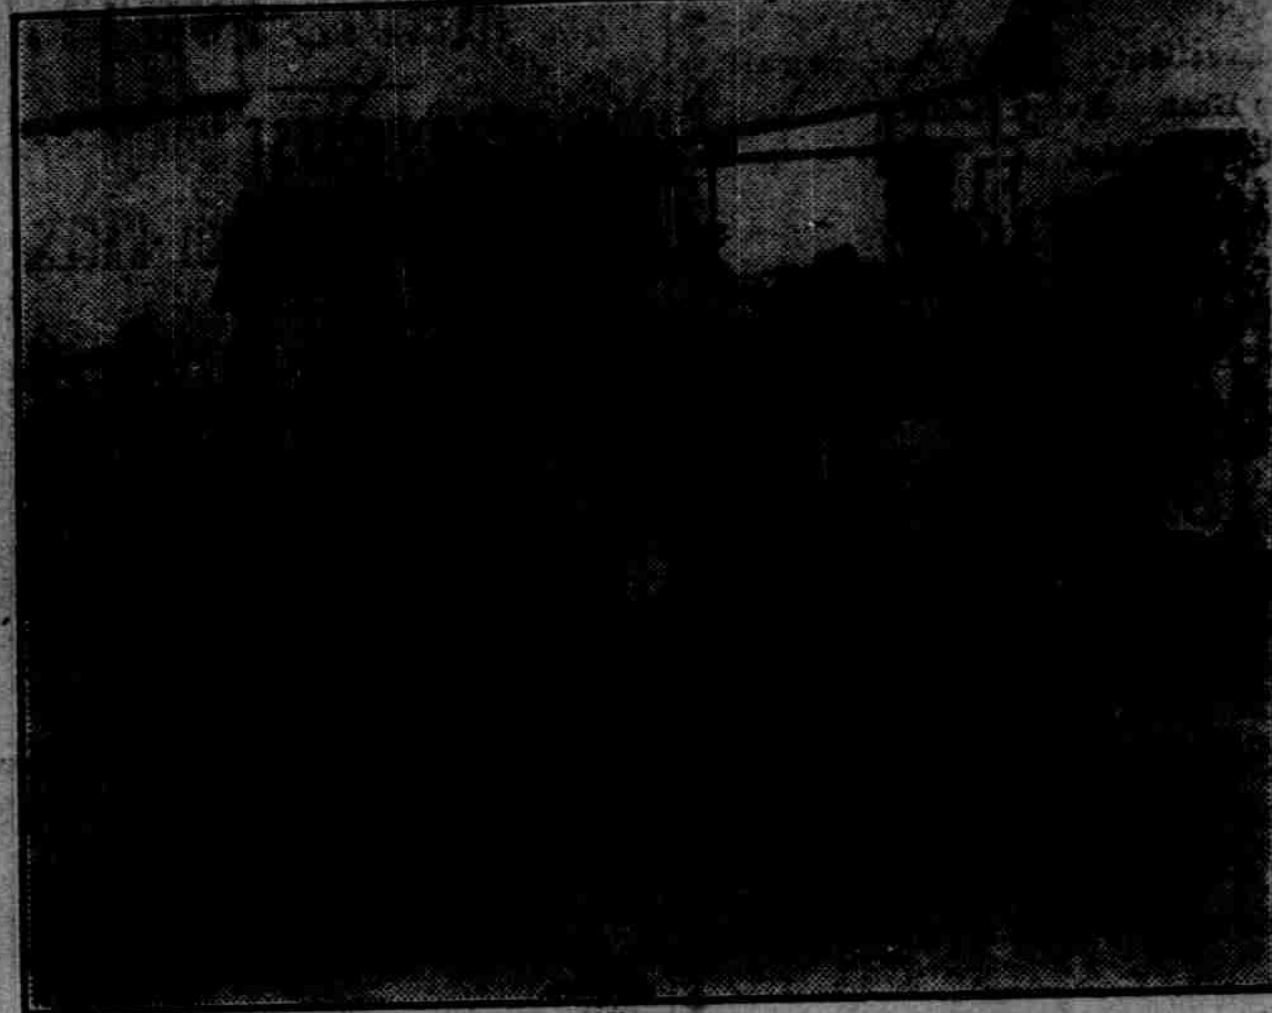

Tribulations of the Drama in New York in 1765.

Here is an account of the sacking of a theater in New York from the Gazette of May 3, 1765:

"The play advertised to be acted last Monday evening having given offense to sundry and divers inhabitants of this city, who thought it highly improper that such entertainments should be exhibited at this time of public distress, when great numbers of poor people can scarce find means of subsistence, whereby many persons might be tempted to neglect their business and squander that money which is necessary to the payment of their debts and the support of their families, a rumor was spread about the town that if the play went on the audience would meet with some disturbance from the multitude."

"This prevented the greatest part of those who intended to have been there from going. However, many people came, and the play was begun, but soon interrupted by the multitude, who burst open the doors and entered with noise and tumult. The audience escaped in the best manner they could. Many lost their hats and other articles

Mexico a Country Filled With Small Eating Booths For Unsuspecting

Copyright by American Press Association.

To the tourist who first strikes Mexico the swarm of eating stands that greet him around the railroad stations and in every large city are appalling in numbers, and while the numbers may cause him to marvel, the food to the uneducated is a terror. Think of serving large red ripe strawberries with hot milk! But that is exactly what your Mexican chef will do, and he will resent it if you file an objection. The average peon is supposed to get but a score of pennies a day for his hire, but at that he seems to be eating two-thirds of the time. And he is unhappy unless he has at least one dog to accompany him throughout his meal. If he has half a dozen dogs, then indeed is the meal a feast. While there are poor eating houses, the Chinaman has invaded Mexico, and he conducts high class cafes. Some Americans shudder at the thought of eating food prepared by a Chinaman, but if he spends much time in Mexico he will liken the Chinese chef to the finest cook in the land in comparison to the average native cook.

of raiment. A boy had his skull fractured and was yesterday trepanned. Death is his. Several others were sorely set upon and injured. But we heard of no lives lost. The multitude immediately demolished the house carried the pieces to the common, where they consumed them in a bonfire."

A Cautious Scot.

Stonehaven lies to the south of Aberdeen. The London train had drawn up at Stonehaven on account of a slight mishap a mile or two ahead, and Andra, the old porter, had got into conversation with a Salvation Army officer, who had popped his head out of the compartment to ask the reason for the delay. "Aye, aye," mused Andra after giving the desired information, "ye'll be for Aberdeen, I'm thinkin'?" "Yes, my man," was the reply; "I'm bound for Aberdeen, a very wicked place, I'm told." "What might ye be goin' to dae there, sir, if it's as bad as a' that?" asked Andra, rather amused at the visitor's words. "Ah," was the pious answer, "I'm going to drive the devil out of Aberdeen." Like lightning came from the old porter the pawky reply, "See an' drive him north, chiel; haul him well to the north!"

He Got His Answer.

"They who ask unpleasant questions," said a senator, "mustn't be surprised if they get unpleasant answers. Yes, the interrogatory politician too often finds himself in the boots of Gobsa Golde."

"The aged Gobsa Golde was quarreling furiously with his young and beautiful wife."

"'Didn't you marry me for my money?' he yelled."

"Mrs. Gobsa Golde tossed her head."

"'Yes, of course I did,' she said, 'and if you weren't so stingy with it we'd never have a cross word.'"

ORMOND ON THE

ORMOND is 4 miles north of Daytona, located on the west bank of the Halifax River. The location of the town permits of good drainage and perfect sanitation; the elevation is superb and ideal for winter homes. A wide bridge connects Ormond with Daytona Beach.

Many fine homes are maintained on either side of the river, most of them surrounded by subtropical flora and shrubbery, besides thirty orange and other citrus fruit trees.

Ormond has many attractions—excellent auto-driving, good fishing, safe boating, and many pleasant drives. At Ormond Beach is located the large Hotel Ormond, and its lesser sister, the Bretton Inn. The former occupies a position overlooking the Halifax, and the latter has as its outlook the magnificent beach and the broad Atlantic.

Besides the beach, smooth beach there are many drives for carriages and automobiles around Ormond—drives toward golden oranges; drives through tropical forests to Spanish ruins; drives to the ancient Gateway built by slaves of planters of long ago, and drives to the plantations of hospitable settlers, whose places are replete with the interest of Southern fruits and flowers.

One of the most interesting of these plantations is at the headwaters of the Halifax and known as Moundgrove. It is one of the finest orange groves on the East Coast of Florida and is amid very pretty surroundings. Moundgrove is on the Daytona-Saint Augustine road.

Are Our Women Becoming Masculine In Their Habits?

— BY —
John W. Alexander, Dudley A. Sargent, Harrison Fisher, Miss E. Burchenal, Dr. Mary Hoffman-Jones.

By Miss ELIZABETH BURCHENAL of the Public School Athletic League of New York City.

WOMEN have developed remarkably during the past ten years. About all the women and girls I know are ROSY CHEEKED, BROAD SHOULDERS, FINE, HEALTHY, NORMAL CREATURES.

Why, don't you know we women today are just beginning to get back to our normal proportions? We are just COMING INTO OUR OWN THROUGH ATHLETICS.

I BELIEVE THE ATHLETIC, THE FINE, HEALTHY TYPE OF WOMAN TODAY IS, BECAUSE OF THIS SPLENDID ATTRACTION, MORE APPEALING TO THE RIGHT SORT OF MAN THAN THE GIRLS OF OTHER PERIODS.

By DUDLEY ALLEN SARGENT, Director of Hemenway Gymnasium, Harvard University.

WOMEN in the savage state were so like men in form that it was well-nigh impossible to tell them apart. Then as civilization progressed their especially feminine characteristics became accentuated until the exaggeration was almost painful to look at.

THEN THE PENDULUM BEGAN TO SWING THE OTHER WAY. WOMEN ARE AGAIN BEGINNING TO LOOK MORE LIKE MEN.

The girls are GETTING MORE SENSIBLE. That's the whole story. Instead of sitting in the parlor and folding their hands all day they go out and TAKE EXERCISE. Of course it makes a change. But it is not going to make men of them.

The Present Unrest of Our People. Why Does It Ever Exist?

By CARDINAL JAMES GIBBONS of Baltimore.

THE people believe that they MUST HAVE AUTOMOBILES, MUST GO TO THEATERS, MUST HAVE DIFFERENT KINDS OF AMUSEMENTS and must have many other things more or less expensive without which their forefathers got along well enough and prospered.

The people must remember that in our day there is a universal tendency toward ORGANIZATION in every department of trade and business.

Throughout the United States there is today a continuous network of syndicates and trusts, of companies and partnerships. When corporations thus combine it is quite natural that mechanics and laborers should follow their example.

THERE IS A CONTINUAL UNREST BETWEEN THE EMPLOYER AND THE EMPLOYED, AND IT WOULD BE MOST BENEFICIAL IF THIS CONDITION COULD BE OVERCOME. THERE SHOULD NOT AND NEED NOT BE ANY CONFLICT BETWEEN CAPITAL AND LABOR SINCE BOTH ARE NECESSARY FOR THE PUBLIC GOOD AND THE ONE DEPENDS UPON THE CO-OPERATION OF THE OTHER.

By JOHN W. ALEXANDER, Painter.

IF the American woman persists in her undue athletic sports there will soon be LITTLE DIFFERENCE BETWEEN THE MASCULINE AND THE FEMININE.

IN NO OTHER COUNTRY IN THE WORLD DO YOU SEE SUCH MASCULINE-LIKE FIGURES AS THE AMERICAN WOMEN HAVE.

By HARRISON FISHER, Artist.

WHILE women are undeniably doing many things now that used to be the lot of men, these things are FAR REMOVED IN NATURE FROM THE HARD, MUSCLE-NEEDING work that the feminine sex performed in olden years.

I BELIEVE THAT THE MENTAL DUTIES THAT MORE WOMEN ARE PERFORMING EACH YEAR HAVE NO EFFECT WHATSOEVER ON THEIR PHYSICAL BEINGS. AND IF THERE WAS ANY EFFECT IT WOULD BE ONE OF LESSENING RATHER THAN UPBUILDING PHYSICAL DEVELOPMENT.

By Dr. MARY HOFFMAN-JONES of New York.

FROM what I can see every day and what I know of through my studies there is a change taking place in the women of America, but it is for the best.

THEY ARE LEARNING MORE AND MORE EVERY DAY HOW TO LIVE AND TO DRESS, AND THIS IS DOING MUCH TOWARD AIDING THEM IN HEALTH AND PHYSIQUE.

The women are not becoming masculine, however.

AFTER SOLFERINO.

"The Gentleman in White" and the Idea of the Red Cross.

During the Italian war of 1859 young Jean Dunant was traveling in that country. After the battle of Solferino he visited the field, and seeing the terrible sufferings of the wounded soldiers who lay around unattended, he, with the assistance of several peasant women, formed an ambulance service, with its headquarters in a little church at Castiglione. He helped with his own hands to bind up the wounds of Frenchmen, Italians and Austrians alike.

"They are all brothers," he said. "A wounded enemy is an enemy no longer." And he and his corps of helpers brought water and medicine and smoothed the pallets of straw and cheered the unfortunates and closed the eyes of the dead and performed the last kind offices for the dying. Dunant was regarded by the hundreds of wounded as a miracle of goodness—little less than an angel. "The gentleman in white" was the way in which the officers spoke of him as he moved around among the sick, his light clothing making him conspicuous on the field.

His experiences at Solferino, where he saw that the willing hands of a few untrained helpers actually saved many lives and comforted hundreds of others, inspired him with the grand idea of an organization—the Red Cross.—Christian Herald.

COSTLY DROP CURTAIN.

The One Meissonier Didn't Paint For a French Theater.

The enterprising manager of a theater called upon the famous French artist Jean Louis Ernest Meissonier on one occasion and asked him to paint a drop scene for a certain theater and name his own terms.

"You have seen my pictures, then?" asked Meissonier.

"Oh, yes," exclaimed the manager. "but it is your name I want! It will draw crowds to my theater."

"And how large do you wish this curtain to be?" inquired the artist.

"Ah, well, we will say 15 by 18 meters."

Meissonier took up a pencil and proceeded to make a calculation. At last he looked up and said, with impenetrable gravity: "I have calculated and find that my pictures are valued at 80,000 francs per meter. Your curtain, therefore, will cost you just 21,600,000 francs. But that is not all. It takes me twelve months to paint twenty-five centimeters of canvas. It will therefore take me just 190 years to finish your curtain. You should have come to me earlier, monsieur. I am too old for the undertaking now. Good morning."

Arabic Numerals.

An illustration of what mankind owes to the labor saving Arabic numerals compared with preceding forms of notation is shown in adding 1848 to 1848, the sum of which is expressed in only four figures, or 3696. Meantime in Roman characters we would have to denote 1848 with the capital letters MDCCCLXVIII. Repeating these letters explains why Cicero complained of the sweating toil of all addition. On that account Homer's total of Agamemnon's fleet is not the correct sum of the different contingents to it which he gives of the Grecian states. Herodotus is worse yet when he gives the total figures of Xerxes' army after enumerating the quota of the various nationalities which composed it. Likewise what a life insurance company would now do without Arabic numerals may be imagined.—Dr. William Hanna Thomson in Designer.

How Machinery Breathes.

An English writer on engineering subjects, Mervyn O'Gorman, calls attention to the fact that a piece of machinery, such as an automobile, laid aside after being used is in danger of internal rusting through a kind of respiration which affects cylinders, gear boxes, clutch chambers, interspaces in ball bearings, and so forth. Every enclosed air space "breathes" by drawing in air when a fall of temperature contracts its walls and expelling it when the walls expand through heat. The moisture introduced with the air is deposited in the cavities and may produce serious damage through rust. The popular belief that oil will protect the inaccessible parts of unused machinery is fallacious, since nearly all oils take up about 3 per cent of water in solution.

Acts of the Apostles.

The weight of testimony is in favor of St. Luke as the author of the Acts of the Apostles, though some respectable critics claim that the authorship is quite unknown. There are no sure data for determining the date of the Acts. Various dates have been ascribed. Some think that it was written about the year 80, while others hold that it could not have been written before the second century, about A. D. 125.—New York American.

A Hard Stunt.

"A man can do almost anything when he discovers that he must." "Have you ever felt that you must get upstairs at 2 a. m. without waking your wife?"—Chicago Record-Herald.

A Sensitive Child.

Uncle Gus—So this is the baby, eh? I used to look just like him at that age. What's he crying about now? Niece Susie—Oh, Uncle Gus, he heard what you said.—Chicago News.

By desiring what is perfectly good we are part of the divine power against evil.—George Eliot.

A WHITE HOUSE TEST.

General Harrison's Objections to Mounting to "Vest."

As a general thing, one of the first duties of the wife of an incoming president and one of the things she usually enjoys heartily is to attend to such rearrangements and refurbishings of the White House as may be necessary or advisable according to her personal taste, the size and customs of her family, and so on.

I remember one occasion, writes Colonel William H. Crook in the Philadelphia Saturday Evening Post, when Mrs. Harrison had finally decided upon some slight architectural changes and had brought her architect's plans to the president and asked his opinion of them. General Harrison studied the drawings with care and noticed that several niches were left, each plainly marked. At last he said:

"Well, my dear, here is a place for Lincoln, and here is a place for Grant's bust. And you have left three places for Vest." Then he added, with well assumed indignation, "I am decidedly opposed to so many monuments to Vest—in the White House!"

Mrs. Harrison hastened to explain—what her husband, of course, knew all the time—that the word "Vest" was the architect's contraction for vestibule, of which there were three on the plans, whereupon the president said he was satisfied and handed the drawings back to her, with a twinkle in his keen blue eyes.

A FIERCE ANATHEMA.

The Pious Wish a Woman Flung at Jean Paul Richter.

Jean Paul Richter once observed that if a lady officer wanted to give the word "Halt!" she would do it in the following strain: "You soldiers, all of you, now mind what I say. I order you as soon as I have done speaking to stand still: every one of you, on the spot where you happen to be. Don't you hear me? Halt, I say, all of you!"

Upon this a strong minded woman made the following comment: "Now, M. Jean, it was an unlucky day on which you wrote that sentence. May you never hear anything but that little, concise word 'No' from every rosy pair of lips you meet. May you halt wifeless through life. May your buttons be snappish, your strings knotty and your stockings full of holes. May your bootjack be missing, your feet corny and your shaving water cold, your razor dull, your hair stand up, your collar lie down. May your beard be porcupine, your whiskers thinly settled and your mustache curl the wrong way. May your coffee be muddy, your toast smoky and your tea water bewitched, and, with a never dying desire for affection, may you crawl through creation a meek, miserable, nasty, forlorn, fidgety, fussy, ridiculous, ruined, dejected old bachelor."

High Sounding Names.

Writing in his Paris paper on the growing custom on the part of parents to give their children "high sounding" names, Clement Vautel says: "When the boy is old enough to understand he rebels at being compelled to carry through life a name like Anacreon or Hipparchus. But he has company. I know a deputy whose parents named him Franklin. The name in itself is not so bad, but he has two brothers, Voltaire and Socrates respectively. Fancy this scene in the nursery: Franklin howling because Voltaire has broken his toy, while Socrates laughs at both. The mother as peacemaker shouts, 'Stop, Socrates, or you'll be punished!' In a narrow street in Marseilles one broiling hot day I saw a woman spanking a child, shouting in anger, 'You naughty Epaminondes! I'll teach you, Epaminondes!' I could never think of the Theban general after that without laughing."

To Say and to Do.

"Do you wish to go to church this evening? Father is going to preach, you know," the minister's fair daughter asked.

The young man considered. "Um! The last time I went he rather fell on some of my small failings. Do you know what his text will be tonight?"

"Yes; 'Love one another.'"

He regarded the round pink cheek approvingly.

"Suppose," he suggested softly, "that we let the old gentleman go preach, while we sit here and practice?"—Lippincott's.

Not Perfect.

A horse dealer was showing a horse to a prospective buyer. After running him back and forward for a few minutes he stopped and said to the buyer: "What do you think of his coat? Isn't he a dandy?"

The buyer, noticing that the horse had the heaves, replied, "Yes, I like his coat all right, but I don't like his pants."—London Tit-Bits.

Shop Talk.

"If we didn't have to give back any change think of the money we merchants would make."

"We all have our troubles," said the magazine publisher. "Sometimes it frets me to have to print any reading matter, but I suppose it must be done."—Kansas City Journal.

The Age of Competition.

"How high is his temperature, doctor?"

"Well, he's closely crowding the record."

"Fine!"—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

It is generally more profitable to reckon up our defects than to boast of our attainments.—Carlyle.

TEN YEARS AGO THIS WEEK.

FROM THE GAZETTE-NEWS OF JANUARY 5, 1901.

With this issue of the Gazette-News, T. E. Fitzgerald assumes control of the paper as editor and proprietor. Mr. Fitzgerald announces that he intends to enlarge the plant and give the people of Daytona and its suburbs a first-class newspaper. The new editor came here from Wisconsin.

The work of stringing the wires for the new telephone line from Daytona to Seabreeze is nearly completed. As soon as this line is finished the company will string wires to New Smyrna and St. Augustine.

Dr. D. D. Beekman was bitten in the hand by a spider Wednesday morning and for a couple of days was prostrated, but is now improving rapidly.

Barnett Howk of Cynthana, Ky., committed suicide in the Burlington hotel in Cincinnati, O., last Sunday evening. Mr. Howk was well known in Daytona, having spent several winters here. No cause for the act has been advanced.

Yesterday morning the sea was running the highest known here for four years. A piece of wreckage washed ashore and knocked a pile boom from the pier.

The curtain at the opera house was completed Tuesday, the painting having been done under the supervision of W. M. McGriff, who was assisted by Hart Bond, of Charlotte, N. C.

Dr. and Mrs. F. H. Houghton of Columbus, O., arrived in the city this week and are domiciled at the Schmidt's Villa.

ARBOR DAY IS ANNOUNCED

BY STATE SUPERINTENDENT.

URGES OBSERVANCE OF THE DAY AND SUGGESTS PROGRAM FOR ALL THE SCHOOLS IN THE STATE.

TALLAHASSEE, Jan. 5.—State Superintendent W. M. Holloway has issued from the educational department of the State the annual suggestive program for the observance of Arbor Day in the public schools throughout Florida. It is hoped by the State superintendent and those interested in the educational progress of this State that each of these programs sent out from his office will find a ready response by the teachers and county superintendents in having the programs carried out by their respective schools. It will accomplish great good in inculcating a love of trees and of nature study among the younger generation, to whom in many instances, many of our present day reform movements must look for their solution. Superintendent Holloway makes the following appeal to the teachers:

To the Teachers of Public Schools and School Officials of Florida:

Again I have the pleasure of inviting your attention to the importance of observing Arbor Day.

With the hope that you will make the first Friday in February the best Arbor Day in the history of the State, I am, cordially yours,

WM. M. HOLLOWAY,
State Supt. Pub. Instruction.

The following is the program, as suggested by the Department of Education of the State for the observance of Arbor Day in the schools:

Song, "Florida."
Scripture reading.

Invocation.
Reading letter of State Superintendent.

Song, selected.

Essay, "Historic Trees."

Recitation, "The Cry of the Pines."

Recitation, "Put Flowers in Your Window."

Song, "The Tree's Story."

Recitation, "The Wayside Inn."

Address suited to the occasion, by some school official or visitor.

Song, "Arbor Day."

OSCEOLA TRIBE I. O. R. M.

INSTALLED OFFICERS.

Osceola Tribe, No. 21, Improved Order of Red Men installed officers at the regular meeting Wednesday night and voted upon three applications for membership. After the work coffee was served and a social time enjoyed.

Following is a list of officers installed:

F. J. Caldwell—Sachem.

Wm. Wetherell, Jr.—Senior Sagamore.

John L. Hamilton—Junior Sagamore.

John P. Pollitz—Collector and Keeper of Wampum.

R. M. Mallery—Deputy Great Sachem.

The appointive offices will be filled at the next meeting.

The public schools of Daytona will open again Monday after the two weeks holiday vacation.

"I'm in debt—heavily in debt," wailed the disconsolate man.

"Is that all that's troubling you?" retorted the cheerful stranger. "From the way you're acting I thought somebody owed you money that you couldn't collect."—Detroit Free Press.

RAVAGED BY DISASTER.

TASHKEND, Turkestan, Jan. 5.—Two thousand soldiers were today rushed to the earthquake stricken section in the vicinity of Vyrny, where two thousand or more people have been killed or wounded. An area of one thousand square miles has been devastated by the disaster and whole towns have been wiped out. The fissures in the ground are growing hourly.

POLITICAL TANGLE IN TENNESSEE.

PATTERSON MAY CONTINUE TO HOLD GOVERNOR'S CHAIR.

RENEWAL OF HOSTILITIES BETWEEN DEMOCRATS AND FUSIONISTS MAY BLOCK THE LEGISLATURE.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Jan. 5.—There is a strong possibility that this state may be without a legislature for two years, with the executive affairs administered by a hold-over governor without funds until the first Monday in January, 1913.

This is the situation confronting the state of Tennessee today as a result of a renewal of hostilities between the regular democrats and the fusionists. Yesterday no regulars appeared to be sworn in and the fusionists have sent the ultimatum that they will now treat with the regulars only upon the open floor of the legislature.

It is believed today that regulars will leave for their homes without being sworn in and that the senate will meet at intervals of three days until the terms of the senators expire, although no business can be transacted.

Governor Patterson will probably either continue in office or resign in favor of Senator Baxter of the senate.
